---

DAY ONE

4:00pm: Check into your vacation rental home and get settled! Stock the fridge, get the lay of the land, and claim your bedroom. Unpack while you wait for Charter Sports to deliver your ski and snowboard rentals.

5:00pm: Kick your vacation off with happy hour at Black Diamond Bistro.

Insider Tip: Order one of their signature Old Fashioned served with Bordeaux cherries.

6:00pm: Take a stroll up to Beaver Creek Village and enjoy a nice dinner at Golden Eagle Inn.

8:00pm: Return to your home-away-from-home for an early night – tomorrow, the real fun begins!

---

DAY TWO

7:30am: Start your week off right with breakfast at The Terrace, located in The Charter at Beaver Creek.

8:45am: Arrive at the children’s Ski School to get the little ones some lessons from world-class ski instructors. Then head to the Centennial Chairlift where you can take in incredible views from 10,200 feet up and hit the slopes.

12:30pm: When your stomachs start growling, meet everyone for lunch at the Umbrella Bar at the Red Tail Camp.

Insider Tip: Order one of their Euro-inspired hot dogs.

3:30pm: After getting in a few more runs, ski back to the Village and take the kids over to the ice rink. Relax on the comfortable patio next to the fire pit while the kids skate around.

4:30pm: While the grandparents roast marshmallows with the kids, slip out for a hot stone massage at Spa Struck.

6:00pm: When everyone’s refreshed and ready, head back over to Black Diamond Bistro for dinner.

Insider Tip: Order a few of the artisan pizzas to sample and share as a group.

6:00pm: For some after-dinner entertainment, check out the schedule at Vilar Performing Arts Center and catch a show. If the kids are itching to see the latest flick, head to Riverwalk Theatre in nearby Edwards.
DAY THREE

8:00am: Gear up for a full day of skiing with some breakfast in your rental. Whip everyone up some yogurt parfaits – layer Greek yogurt, fresh berries and granola. Scramble eggs on the side for an added energy boost.

9:00am: Take the Elkhorn Lift to Bachelor Gulch, and warm up your muscles with some green and blue ski runs.

12:30pm: Ski down to Beaver Creek Chophouse for a delicious lunch. Then it's back on the slopes!

Insider Tip: Start with the Poutine before trying their Signature Salad.

3:00pm: Head back to your rental and relax before dinner. If your rental has access to a heated pool, let the kids have some fun while you cozy up with a book. Enjoy apres at “home” by making some cocktails, and sparkling ciders for the little ones.

6:00pm: Enjoy dinner at 8100 Mountainside Bar & Grill, a lively spot that specializes in local, natural and organic dishes and features Colorado’s best microbrews and local wines.

Insider Tip: You can’t go wrong with the House Made Ravioli in Smoked Tomato Gravy.

8:00pm: Back at your rental home, gather the group together for a fun family game night!

DAY FOUR

8:00am: Enjoy a nice family breakfast in your rental. Get everyone involved in preparing some eggs, bacon and fresh fruit.

9:00am: Have Nova Guides pick you up for a guided snowmobile tour. Starting at 9,200 feet, you’ll reach an elevation of 12,500 feet and catch views of four different mountain ranges, gorgeous alpine meadows, historic Camp Hale and the Continental Divide.

12:00pm: As part of your tour, enjoy lunch at McAllister’s Grill in Nova Guides’ scenic lodge at Camp Hale.

Insider Tip: Order the Battle Mountain BLT in honor of the site's WWII history.

1:30pm: After your tour, make the quick drive east to Vail Mountain. Hop in the Eagle Bahn Gondola at Lionshead Village and take in the gorgeous mountain views. Get some runs in while the rest of the group browses the shops, if you’re itching to explore the mountain.

5:30pm: While you’re in Vail, grab an early dinner at La Bottega where you can indulge in some fine Italian classics.

Insider Tip: You can’t pass up the pasta dishes.

8:00pm: When you get back to your rental, gather the family together on the couch with a good movie or get a head-start on a full night’s sleep.
DAY FIVE

7:30am: Get the whole family involved in whipping up some blueberry pancakes and brew a fresh pot of coffee to sip as you take in those mountain views.

8:30am: Get picked up by your ski instructor for a private family lesson on the mountain. Beaver Creek Ski and Snowboard School offers world-class service so you can reach new heights.

12:00pm: Stop on top of the mountain for a family photo op with EpicMix Photo.

Insider Tip: Pick up a picture frame at one of the shops in the Village as a special souvenir.

12:30pm: Ski down to Broken Arrow at the base of the Arrow Bahn Express Lift and have lunch on the deck so you can soak up the spectacular views.

Insider Tip: They’re home to “Beaver Creek’s Best Bloody Mary,” so go ahead!

3:30pm: Back in Beaver Creek Village, enjoy après ski at Toscanini before taking the kids over to the ice rink to spin and twirl the rest of their energy out.

6:00pm: After a fun-filled day, kick back at your vacation rental home and enjoy dinner in. Prepare a favorite meal from home, or order some takeout.

8:00pm: Enjoy a dip in the hot tub before turning in for the night.

DAY SIX

7:30am: Get an early start to make the most of your last day on the slopes. Stop by Rimini for some breakfast pastries, coffee and hot cocoa for the little ones.

8:30am: Ride to the top of the mountain, take a left on Cinch and ski over to see the Birds of Prey Race Course – one of the most difficult downhill courses in the world and host to the annual Birds of Prey World Cup.

12:30pm: After some riding, stop for lunch on top of Bachelors Gulch at Mamie’s Mountain Grill.

Insider Tip: The unique menu features “grill-your-own” options of lamb, chicken and burgers!

1:30pm: When everyone’s refreshed, it’s back on the slopes! Enjoy some friendly competition to see who can clock the most vertical feet. If you’re tired, head back to the rental for some R&R while the rest of the group rides.

3:00pm: Don’t forget to grab one of Beaver Creek Mountain’s famous, fresh-baked chocolate chip cookies, served warm each afternoon on the mountain.

6:30pm: Your last night calls for a special experience. Enjoy a scenic, peaceful sleigh ride up to Zach’s Cabin, where you'll dine on American cuisine with a distinct Pacific flavor. Then it’s a starlit ride back down to cap off a perfect evening.

Insider Tip: Reservations are required, so plan ahead.

8:30pm: Back at the rental, gather everyone around the fireplace and sip hot cocoa as you wind down for the night.
DAY SEVEN

10:00am: After packing up and checking out of your rental home, drive west and have a delicious brunch at Vintage in Vail.

Insider Tip: Start with the freshly baked pastries, and take your time reliving the week’s best moments before you head out of town.
